

A Pathway Home for Malachi

Cody and Michaela have always wanted a large family, and shortly after the birth of their son Carter, they began to explore the idea of adoption as a way of growing their family. Michaela shared, "We wanted to adopt a child who needed a loving home; we felt adoption was the right thing for us."

Miles away, a birth mother abandoned her new born son at a fire station with the hope that he would be placed with a family that could provide for all his needs. The search for a loving family quickly began.

Cody and Michaela were thrilled with the opportunity to adopt this precious child. With financial assistance from Pathways for Little Feet, Malachi was welcomed into the loving arms of his new family.

"Adopting a child was such an amazing experience. We are very thankful for Pathways for Little Feet's support. We could not have done it without them."
